Dearest Mother & Daddy:

I rec4ived two letters from you today, V-mails, dated Feb. 27th and March 7th. Some service, huh?

Today I loafed in my tent all day doing exactly nothing but reading and playing checkers. Played a lot of checkers today, and won most of them. It didn't rain today, and all of my clothes got clean.

Started to go to the show here at the Batallion theatre tonight, but I saw Dark Waters a month or more ago.

The small amount in my account wouldn't do any good so I won't bother with it. See Bert ! Right?

I can't understand what you are doing. Are you spending all of your money for merchandise, and not keeping a good cash balance on hand. Anyway, you have power of attorney for me, so if you didn't file it, it is your hard luck. I told you to. You can do anything with the money you want to. Right?

Think I'll stroll up and see Arnold Royal tomorrow morning, as I haven't anything else to do, and it is Sunday, and we are off for the day.

That is all for now, so be good, and write soon. Please send me some food.

Love,

Harold
